Respondent's initials and surname

Kindly take notice that the court considered your application for a protection order and did not issue an interim protection order, but directed the clerk of the court to cause copies of the papers to be served on the respondent together with a notice calling on him/ her* to show cause on the _____ day of _____ 20 _____ at 08h30 why a protection order should not be issued.

Kindly further take notice:

- that your attendance is required on the said date and time;
- that you may be supported by no more than three (3) persons at the proceedings on the return date; and
- that if you are present on the return date while the notice to show cause was duly served on the respondent and the respondent fails to appear, the court may issue a final protection order.

Clerk of the court: Ermelo

I hereby acknowledge receipt of a copy of this letter.
